Elam's Organics

Elam Wills has been farming organically in the beautiful Similkameen Valley of Southern B.C. since 1978. Together with his wife Maggie, son Tree, and Daughter-in-law Katja, they are now farming 15 acres of certified organic garlic, nectarines, prune plums, apples, and Lapin cherries under the Elams Organics label.

After harvesting fresh organic cherries and nectarines for shipping to Choices retail stores, Elam and Maggie hand-slice, pit, and separate the remaining product on racks to dry in the warm Okanagan sun. Weeks later, these sun-dried nectarichips and cherries are ready for you in our Produce Departments under the Clapping Chimp label.
